Critical Theory Exercise:

Part I. As you read the description of the methodology — that is, the description of the method, or approach, to literary texts (Marxism, New Historicism, Psychoanalysis, Deconstruction) — identify each of the following:

a. three key concepts of the methodology

b. one or two misconceptions about the methodology

c. two or three different kinds of approaches found within the same methodology

Part II. Identify each of the following regarding the critical article given as a sample of that methodology in the book:

a. three of the more important arguments made about the literary work

b. two of the more important passages to review in depth (identify by page and paragraph)
