Economics 202 Principles of Microeconomics Fall 2012 Instructor and Course Evaluation Comments

What did you like most about this instructor and course?

1. No homework.
2. He is well organized.
3. He knows his stuff.
5. He knows what he’s talking about.
6. He helped me before a test when I was really struggling.
7. Lack of homework creates much less stress. Teacher showed great enthusiasm for the subject.
8. Attendance was not required by the professor, but it was required by the course and the lessons.
9. The lecture format was consistent and quizzes were gone through after they were turned in.
10. Knowledge and some real world applications of materials.
11. Straight forward presentation of the material. Mini quizzes, which can give your grade a boost.
12. The clarity of the lectures and test-based structure, and how the material is applied to reality.
13. He is intelligent and enthusiastic.
14. He knew a lot of what he was teaching.
15. It went towards my major.
16. His voice.
17. Walked you through most of the difficult material.
18. Examples.
19. He was very friendly, and tried to be helpful.
20. Helpful, good material.
22. Great ability to explain difficult concepts in an easy to understand way.

What did you dislike most about this instructor and course?

1. The tests often have questions that are stated in a way much different than we learned the material.
2. He can’t communicate it properly.
3. He is hard to understand even sitting front row.
4. He has just four tests. You must do very well on all tests to do good in the class. Along with never replying to emails.
5. The subject, however this is not a reflection on the teacher or the course.
6. It was a lower level course for being 200 level, and I feel that it should have covered more. What was covered through was gone through thoroughly.
7. The exam questions did not always fell explained well during class to where I could have answered them better.
8. Presentation style. The overall course.
9. All lecture.
10. He needs to review material before tests.
11. Test should have been graded on curve.
12. The exams.
14. Not clear about what should be done to prepare for exam.
15. No homework, need more to help grade.
16. I couldn’t understand him through his accent, and the course seemed boring.
17. Sometimes boring.
18. If you did poorly, there weren’t many assignments to bring grade up.

What constructive suggestions do you have for this instructor or course?

1. Word tests better/more clearly.
2. Make exams cumulative.
3. Make the material closer to the exam with less trick questions.
4. Give more assignments to help teach and give more opportunity for a better grade.
5. Keep up the good work. I look forward to taking more classes from you.
6. In class exam reviews.
7. Smaller classroom sizes for teaching material.
8. Maybe assign one or two homework’s or one mini project.
9. There needs to be assignments, a review before tests, test were hard.
10. You should have review sessions and better prep for test.
11. Review for the exams.
12. Practice English.
13. Offer extra credit/homework assignments to help those not good at testing.
15. Give students an opportunity to work on their grade.

Additional Comments.

1. This class is extremely hard! Worst class I’ve had to take. Not one of my major classes. The course work needs to be reworked so it’s more basic and not so in depth, and hard to understand.
2. Pretty good course. Learned something.
