Econ 520, Spring 2010

WHAT DID YOU LIKE MOST ABOUT THIS INSTRUCTOR AND COURSE?

- Material was interesting
- Dr. Yaya provides the first waiting process I’ve encountered in Grad Classes. It was also my introduction to the economic literature.
- Dr. Yaya is a good lecturer.

WHAT DID YOU DISLIKE MOST ABOUT THIS INSTRUCTOR AND COURSE?

- I do not feel that he covers enough of the material that he expects to be known on exams. More examples are needed of different types of problems.
- Exams were really long.
- The exams were challenging—at times very difficult but Dr. Yaya always finds correction of mistakes to master learning.
- There is a disconnect between what is presented in course and in textbook and what is on exams—no good examples in book or in lectures of types of questions on the test.
- The instructor asks questions in the exams that he did not show how to solve. Ex. Exam 2 questions 7a. He does not follow the course syllabus.

WHAT CONSTRUCTIVE SUGGESTIONS DO YOU HAVE FOR THIS INSTRUCTOR AND COURSE?

- Keep working on the waiting element and I like the conversational style of the class.
- The instructor is concerned about separating “A” and “B” students. If course is presented in an organized, straightforward manner, these students separate themselves.
